

SPECIAL NEEDS TUTORING

Convenient, comfortable, one-to-one

We come to you, wherever you are, at a time that is convenient. In the comfort of your own home, we provide individualized training and give your child the caring and confidence that they need to succeed.

Everyone can learn with the right approach

We believe that all thinking caps can be tailored. We have a comprehensive, collaborative approach and work together with your child and teachers to find the right tutoring strategies to support them. We find the perfect tutors matched to your child's learning differences, personality, and academic subjects.

Better learning, better life

Your education consultant and tutor have your child's best interests at heart. We listen, understand, and build an educational support team to help your students be the best that they can be.

Your goals are our goals

Whatever your child's needs are, we build a tailor-made plan that gets results. We also have an innovative X-Skills™ plan to help them stay focused, plan ahead and reach their goals.

tutor doctor
How learning hits home.

Tutor Doctor tutors students with many different learning needs, including but not limited to students who have:

- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
- Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Deafness / Hard of Hearing
- Processing Disorders
- Dyslexia

While we provide the knowledge and resources needed to help your children achieve their academic goals, please be aware that our tutoring is not therapeutic. We believe anyone can live up to their potential with our supportive learning environment and teaching strategies.

Call us today to schedule a free consultation at:
(217) 418-4746
tutordocor.com